

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Can you remember a time when someone hung up on you on the telephone? How did it make you feel?
2. What are the similarities between hanging up the phone on someone and harboring one of the prayer killers? How do you think God feels when we "hang up" on Him?
3. Different people struggle with different prayer killers. Of the ten listed in the chapter, which ones are you most susceptible to? Why are these particularly difficult for you?
 - a. unconfessed sin
 - b. lack of faith
 - c. disobedience
 - d. lack of transparency with God and others
 - e. unforgiveness
 - f. wrong motives
 - g. idols in my life
 - ✓ h. disregard for others
 - i. disregard for God's sovereignty
 - j. unsundered will
4. What are some of the benefits of having open communication with God without any spiritual hindrances?
5. What things can you do to prevent yourself from falling into the habit of any of the ten prayer killers?